

MINOR TRAFFIC OFFENSE DIVERSION PROGRAM

The Chillicothe Law Director and the Chillicothe Municipal Court have started a diversion program for drivers who have been charged with minor moving violations. The program is designed to allow drivers to avoid a conviction for the moving violation while improving their driving skills. To apply, you must fill-out an application, pay a non-refundable fee of $10.00, and be accepted into the program by the Law Director. To successfully complete the program, you must pay the waiver fee and complete either the Responsible Driver Adult Education class if you are less than 55 years of age or the AARP Driver Safety Program if you are 55 years of age or older. The eligibility requirements and application process is set out below:

ELIGIBILITY - You must meet all of the following requirements:

- (1) Received a traffic citation for a minor misdemeanor moving violation after July 1, 2007;
- (2) Not had a moving violation within the last twelve (12) months;
- (3) Committed no more than three (3) traffic violations in the past ten (10) years;
- (4) Not previously completed the program; and
- (5) Not be rejected from the program.
- (6) Not be involved in a motor vehicle accident involving injury to another person at the time of the violation.

APPLICATION PROCESS - You must do all of the following;

- (1) Sign and complete the application for acceptance into the diversion program;
- (2) Provide the court with an abstract of your driving record from the Bureau of Motor Vehicles;
- (3) Provide proof of financial responsibility that was in effect at the time of the offense;
- (4) Pay a non-refundable application fee of $10.00 and all applicable waivers for the offense charged;
- (5) Plead guilty and waive your right to a trial (If you are accepted into the program and then fail to complete the program, you will be found guilty based on this plea and the conviction will be reported to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. If you successfully complete the program, then the guilty plea will be withdrawn, and the case will be dismissed.); and
- (6) Complete either the Responsible Driver Adult Education class if you are less than 55 years of age or the AARP Driver Safety Program if you are 55 years of age or older. The course must be completed within ninety (90) days of the offense. You must provide the court with satisfactory proof that the course has been completed.

You are responsible for providing the court with satisfactory proof that the course has been completed.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW - You must complete one of the following programs as assigned by the court.

- (1) AARP Driver Safety Program
  - a. For age 55 and older
  - b. Requires four (4) hours of class work. Classes are held at the Ross County Senior Citizens Center, 1824 Western Avenue, Chillicothe, Ohio.
  - c. The program is free for Ross County residents, $10.00 for out-of-county residents.
  - d. There is no test, but you must complete a workbook to get your certificate of completion. Copies of the workbook are available at the Sheriff's Department.
  - e. Participants should contact Deputy Weber at the Ross County Sheriff's Department (740) 773-1186 to schedule class time.
- (2) Responsible Driver Adult Education
  - a. For age 54 and under.
  - b. Requires three (3) hours of class work. Classes are held at the Ross County Highway Patrol Station, 201 Hospital Road.
  - c. There is no fee for the program.
  - d. You must pass a test at the conclusion of the program to get your certificate.
  - e. Participants should contact Sgt. McKeever at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Post (740) 775-7782 to schedule class time.

BENEFITS

- (1) Successful completion of the program will result in the case being dismissed and no points assessed by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles.
- (2) You will gain increased knowledge and improved driving skills.
- (3) Many insurance companies offer discounts for successful completion.
